

SEMINAR: South Island Seminar 2018

Date: Saturday, 17 March

Venue: Otago Museum, Dunedin

Time: 9:00am - 5:00pm followed by drinks and nibbles

DRAFT PROGRAMME (times to be confirmed)
Registration Opens with arrival tea and coffee
Welcome/Housekeeping	Terry Taylor, President NZIMLS
A view from the other side	Shingi Chiruka, Haematologist Dunedin
Just what happens in those country labs?	Dunstan and Queenstown Laboratory
What about those anaesthetic technicians?	Angela Dewhirst, Southern DHB
The multidisciplinary study, an SCL laboratory perspective	Roger Barton, SCL Dunedin
What happens in the Mortuary?	Di Shaw, Southern DHB
Where do our scientists come from?	Cat Ronayne, Otago University
Career progression in medical laboratory science	Heather Compton, Healthscope NZ
Maori belief and laboratory science	Wendi Raumati, Te Ara Haurua, Southern DHB
Massive Transfusion Protocol	Dunedin BTS
Case study	Christian Christian, SCL Dunedin
CPD update	Jillian Broadbent, NZIMLS CPD Coordinator
Update from the MSC	Don Mikkelsen, Chair of MSC
Update from the NZIMLS	Sue Melvin, Region 5 Representative
Drinks and nibbles (for ticket holders)

Plus please, please more 15-20 minute presentations particularly case studies...